I accepted the position with WAMM, pledging that I would commit to two years as director. Well, the two years is coming to an end and it was time to evaluate things with regard to my personal and family obligations.

I really loved my time as WAMM's Director and sadly I say good bye. I want to thank WAMM for the wonderful opportunity to serve in the mighty job of helping to work for peace and justice.

I will use my new free time to spend time with my family, assisting one daughter with her day care, helping another daughter with her wedding plans and being available for my elderly father.

I still plan on being an active WAMM member, so you will see me around.
